

South East Training Modern Slavery Policy

This is the statement of general policy and arrangements for:

South East Training Network Limited

Overall and final responsibility for this policy is that of:

Tony Walton, Director and Principal Consultant

Day-to-day responsibility for ensuring this policy is put into practice is delegated to:

All employees and associate consultants engaged on an assignment for South East Training

POLICY STATEMENT

- South East Training has a zero tolerance approach to modern slavery.
- We are committed to the principles of the Modern Slavery Act 2015 and the abolition of modern slavery and human trafficking.
- We do not enter into business with any organisation, in the UK or abroad, which knowingly supports or is found to be involved in slavery, servitude and forced or compulsory labour.
- Due to the nature of our business, we assess ourselves to have a low risk of modern slavery in our business and supply chains.

EMBEDDING THE POLICY

We will continue to embed the principles through:

- Ensuring all staff and associate consultants are aware of the requirements of the Modern Slavery Act 2015 and informing them of the appropriate action to take if they suspect a case of slavery or human trafficking
- Ensuring staff and associates involved in procurement activity are aware of and follow modern slavery procurement guidance published by the UK Government
- Ensuring modern slavery risks and prevention are considered when procuring any goods and services
- Including in our associate contract appropriate references to the avoidance of engaging in any form of business relationship with individuals or organisations that do not have a zero tolerance to modern slavery and human trafficking.
